Business Continuity Plan

Our office remains open and our staff is working on-site, while complying with all directives issued by the Government and the CMA CGM Group.

We have a Business Continuity Plan that has been thoroughly tested. If the situation were to evolve, we are fully prepared to continue serving you remotely, with full access to our documents and software.

In a collective effort to slow down the spread of the Covid-19, please visit our offices only if necessary and prefer contacting us via email, phone or visit our website.

Please note that the following preventive measures are in effect in our office:

- Visitors forbidden, if necessary, please always wear face mask in all meetings.
- Visitors are required to take temperature and use alcohol sanitizer before entering our offices.

Operational situation in Taiwan

All our services are operational, and our depots are fully functional.

Terminals are in activity. Container deliveries are taking place.
