

Mandatory Requirements for Shipper-Owned Container (SOC) Import Shipments to India

Dear Valued Customer,

Please be informed that, in line with the revised Customs requirements applicable to containers imported into India, the following requirements will be mandatory for all Shipper-Owned Container (SOC) shipments destined for India.

Customers are requested to ensure compliance with the following requirements at the time of booking:

1. Consignee / Notify Party Registration

The Consignee and/or Notify Party in India must be duly registered with the relevant Port and Customs authorities to facilitate the required manifest filing in India.

2. Waybill of Lading

All SOC shipments destined for India must move under a Waybill of Lading.

3. Prepaid Charges

All applicable CMA CGM charges for India-bound SOC shipments must be on a Prepaid basis.

4. Free Out Basis

All SOC shipments destined for India must be booked and moved on a Free Out basis.

Customers are requested to ensure the above requirements are fulfilled prior to shipment acceptance to avoid potential delays or compliance-related issues upon arrival in India.

For further clarification or assistance, please contact ind.service@cma-cgm.com

Thank you for your cooperation and continued support.

Best Regards
